Hi Andrew -

We completely disagree with your description of our September 27 meet and confer and we are opposed to your motion for the same reasons outlined below and in my earlier email today. Thanks.

Andrew:

As an initial matter, we don't see a basis for the extraordinary relief you are requesting, nor are we aware of any authority to support the request. In addition, Affiliates have yet to complete their production of all documents hitting on the term "Medicaid" for any custodians (productions have been slightly delayed given ECF 214), so we do not understand how Relator can contend that Affiliates' production is deficient for "similar reasons" to those discussed on the September 27 meet and confer with PPFA. We are disappointed that Relator yet again has chosen to file a motion without engaging in a meaningful meet and confer process. If Relator intends to file the motion without further discussion of any specific concerns, please state that Affiliates oppose the motion to compel, as well as the motion to expedite briefing on this issue that they only just learned about a few hours ago.

Thanks,
Tirzah

Danny, Tirzah,

When we met and conferred on September 27 regarding PPFA's noncompliance with the Court's order granting our motion to compel, we explained several deficiencies in PPFA's production, including specific documents that should have been produced and sources of information that had not been collected or searched. We have also discussed several times on calls and in emails our position that the PPFA Affiliates' production is deficient for similar reasons. Rather than file a motion for sanctions or contempt at this time, we are filing the motion referenced in my email below to address PPFA's noncompliance and to request the appointment of a forensic examiner to get the documents that Defendants' were ordered to produce.

Please let me know if you are opposed or unopposed.

Thank you,

Andrew

Hi Andrew -

This is coming completely out of the blue and seems like something that we should discuss first. I'm not sure what the reason for this request is and we certainly haven't previously discussed it. Would you please provide some additional context as to what production you are seeking to compel and why you believe that appointment of a forensic examiner is necessary here? As you know, the Court has been explicit about its expectation that the parties confer in good faith to resolve any discovery disputes before they are presented to the Court. Thanks.

Andrew, we would like to speak with you about the 30b6 notices on Monday. I'm just checking availability on our side and will revert with a proposed timeframe.

Did anything change in these amended notices other than the dates?

Thanks
